

We can't wait to see you in person!

But in the meantime, we'll be right here online.

Re-Imagining SESCO

Unprecedented times. Two words you have probably heard plenty of times in recent months. Despite their truth, SESCO is still working behind the scenes. Our members are looking forward to the day when we can gather for our Annual Dinner at the Gasthaus Bavarian Hunter or a bus tour, among other things. In the meantime, we're still here. As always, we will keep you updated via our website (sesca.org) and you can reach us at sistercity@sesca.org.

A brief note on the pandemic from a German perspective. Germany has limited its coronavirus death toll compared to other European countries. But health care experts there say that other areas of the health care system and society are suffering due to the focus on the pandemic

Hope this letter finds you and your families all in good health.

Prost,

-Bill Kiehnbaum, President

TRANSATLANTIC CHAPTERS: An Exploration of German-American Connections

Join the Germanic American Institute this fall for a series of virtual and in-person events that explore new topics in German-American history. Starting with the exhibit Stars and Stripes over the Rhine, this series will explore little-known history and pivotal developments over the 20th century that continue to shape connections between Germany and the United States.

New Improvements
AT THE SHOREVIEW
COMMUNITY CENTER

If you haven't seen the improvements at the Shoreview Community Center (Hwy 96 and Victoria Street N), you should do so: the grounds boast a new pond area with water fountain and walking trails as well as a new skatepark.
Take a moment to visit before the snow flies!
